BLOOD OF THE BAND: An Ipai Family Story

ISBN: 9781941384121, Retail: $19.95

Author: David L Toler Jr.

Publisher: Sunbelt Publications

Pub Date: 08/15, Format: SC

The Ipai (also known as Kumeyaay) are the native people of northern San Diego County. This book illustrates how one Ipai family's remarkable story forms part of the little-known, yet profoundly significant long-term history of human habitation in the land that only recently has come to be known as southern California. Beginning with the ancestors' accounts of the creation of the world that link the Ipai with the unique characteristics of our region's natural world, the journey then takes readers through the archaeological, historical, ethnographic and contemporary accounts of the dramatic transformations through which the Ipai have persisted and ultimately prospered.

OLD MAGIC: Lives of the Desert Shamans

ISBN: 9781941384053, Retail: $22.95

Author: Nicholas Clapp

Publisher: Sunbelt Publications

Pub Date: 11/14 Format: SC

For a thousand generations, desert shamans of the far West sought order in the stars and in the mysteries and wonder of their grand, if unforgiving landscape. Drawing on the lore of a dozen tribes, Old Magic conjures the year-to-year life of a shaman – a life of service to his people, a life fraught with torment and danger.

THE UNIVERSAL TOOL KIT: Out of Africa to Native California

ISBN: 9780979378010, Retail price: 19.95

Author: Paul Douglas Campbell

Publisher: Paul Douglas Campbell

Pub Date: 07/13, Format: HC

From earliest Stone Age in Africa to 20th century California, our ancestors smashed rock to make tools. The tools from broken stones formed the most important survival kit ever invented and is surprisingly similar the world over. Elements of that kit live on today in remote corners of the globe among people close to the earth. The most important survival kit ever invented, it altered the very shape of the human species and for millions of years was truly a universal tool kit. The universal tool kit endured and accompanied man into the New World where it is strongly represented in all levels of archaeology and the ethnology of Native California. This book explores the origin, description and function of baseline stone tools and its practical applications and templates of manufacture. It also looks at stone age spear throwers and how they were used.

INDIANS OF THE OAKS

ISBN: 9780937808504, Retail: $12.95

Author: Millicent Lee

Publisher: San Diego Museum Of Man

Pub Date: 1989, Format: SC

A delightfully written fictional, but historically accurate account of life among the Kumeyaay Indians whose villages were in the mountains, foothills, and valleys of San Diego County among oak groves. In the first of two tales, a white boy is adopted into a band and must learn the ways of the Kumeyaay. In the second story, a young girl learns about the plants and animals from her "herbwoman" mother and finds the limitation of natural healing with the introduction of white man's diseases. Originally published 1937.
