Pub: RANDOM HOUSE, Author: LEONARD RICHARDS

PUB DATE 2/08, Format: SC

When gold was discovered at Sutter's Mill in 1848, Americans saw the potential for both wealth and power. Among them were Southern slave owners. By making California a slave state, they could increase the value. When California entered the union as a free state, disillusioned Southerners would agitate for even more slave territory, leading to the Kansas-Nebraska Act and, ultimately, to the Civil War itself.
