

ADOPTED BY INDIANS

ISBN: 9780930588939 Retail: $11.00

Publisher: HEYDAY BOOKS

Author: THOMAS MAYFIELD

PUB DATE 8/97, Format: SC

The fascinating memoirs of a young boy's life with a California Indian tribe in the 1800s. At the age of 82, Mayfield told his story to a school teacher and historian. His father fought in the War of 1812; Mayfield, born 30 years later, lost his mother at a young age and went to live with the Choinumne Indians, who doted upon him. Running parallel to the history of the Gold Rush and the settling of the San Joaquin Valley in California, the story describes how the Indians lived, their customs, the food, hunting, and the character of the people.

THE UNIVERSAL TOOL KIT: Out of Africa to Native California

ISBN: 9780979378010, Retail: $19.95
Author, Publisher: PAUL D. CAMPBELL
PUB DATE 7/13, Format: HC

From earliest Stone Age in Africa to 20th century California, our ancestors smashed rock to make tools. The tools from broken stones formed the most important survival kit ever invented and is surprisingly similar the world over. This book explores the origin, description and function of baseline stone tools and its practical applications and templates of manufacture. It also looks at stone age spear throwers and how they were used.
